The following cases were dismissed with the concurrence of the chair during this period: (The full text of the dismissal letters issued can be viewed at www.pdc.wa.gov. Click on “Compliance” and “Dismissal of Complaints.”)

Spencer, Dane-- Case #02-291; Investigator: Suemary Trobaugh

Date Received: March 18, 2002 (Investigation Suspended per injunction: Re-Activated on April 21, 2004)

Date Started: April 1, 2002

Section of Law: RCW 42.17.130

Status: Investigation Complete

Summary: A complaint was received from Tom Hujar alleging that officials of the Bainbridge Island Park District used park facilities to support a February 5, 2002 local ballot proposition.

Disposition: Dismissed with the concurrence of the chair. It was found that on March 11, 2002, the pro-levy campaign committee in support of the ballot measure reserved a park district facility. The room was reserved using the normal method for reserving a room for community use, and no fee was charged to the pro-levy committee in accordance with the normal practice. The levy committee meeting was held in the evening after the normal park district work hours, and Dave Lewis, the park district’s Executive Director, acknowledged that he has represented the park district at the meetings held outside of regular work hours. Mr. Lewis stated he attended the March 11, 2002, meeting as a private citizen and not as a representative of the district, and that he was not directed or asked to attend pro-levy committee meetings by the Park District Commissioners or any other park district employees. In addition, Mr. Spencer sent an email from his home using his personal computer that was sent on March 13, 2002, to various personal e-mail addresses of levy supporters. No evidence of a violation of RCW 42.17.130 by Dane Spencer was found.

Pearsall-Stipek, Cathy-- Case #02-294; Investigator: Sally Parker

Date Received: April 3, 2002

Date Started: April 15, 2002

Section of Law: RCW 42.17.130

Status: Investigation Complete

Note: If the Disposition shows “Pending,” the case has not yet been resolved and no finding on the allegations has been made.

Summary: A complaint was received from Dale Washam alleging that Cathy Pearsall-Stipek, Pierce County Auditor, used or authorized the use of facilities of the Pierce County Auditor’s Office to assist her 1998 election campaign for Pierce County Auditor and the 2002 election campaign of Pat McCarthy for Pierce County Auditor. The portion of the complaint alleging that Pat McCarthy violated RCW 42.17.130 was dismissed July 22, 2002.

Disposition: Dismissed with the concurrence of the chair. It was found that Ms. Pearsall-Stipek’s name and title have been on Pierce County Auditor letterhead since her appointment in 1993. Ms. Pearsall-Stipek added Pat McCarthy’s name and title when Ms. McCarthy was hired in 1999 and the responsibilities of the exempt Deputy Auditor position were increased. The style of letterhead is similar to that used by other county auditors and other public agencies. Ms. Pearsall-Stipek’s name and photo have regularly appeared in Auditor’s office publications, some of which are provided to voters and candidates for informational purposes. The use of Ms. Pearsall-Stipek’s name and title, and Ms. McCarthy’s name and title, on letterhead and Auditor publications constituted normal and regular conduct. In addition, we found no evidence that the satellite offices were started or advertised to assist Ms. Pearsall-Stipek’s campaign or that continuing the satellite offices was done in anticipation of Ms. McCarthy’s candidacy for Pierce County Auditor in 2002.

Raplee, Debra--Case #04-399; Investigator: Lori Anderson

Date Received: December 29, 2003

Date Started: January 5, 2004

Section of Law: RCW 42.17.530

Status: Investigation Complete (Portion of complaint remains Under Review)

Summary: Complaints were received from Todd Livingood and Leona Orr alleging that Debra Raplee, a candidate for Kent City Council, sponsored political advertising that contained false statements made against Leona Orr, an incumbent Kent City Councilperson. The complaint filed by Leona Orr included the same allegations as the complaint filed by Mr. Livingood as well as additional allegations. The complaint filed by Mr. Livingood was dismissed and a portion of the complaint filed by Ms. Orr was dismissed with the concurrence of the Chair. A portion of the complaint by Ms. Orr remains under review. The following alleged false statements in political ads sponsored by Debra Raplee were dismissed: (1) Leona Orr has welcomed a convicted sex offender to Kent; (2) Leona Orr has put you and your children at risk by voting to allow sex offender housing in Kent; (3) Current council members ... laid off workers; and (4) Leona Orr ... Voted to raise all utility rates by another 1.2%. The following alleged false statements in political ads sponsored by Debra Raplee remain under review:

(1) Leona Orr ... Voted to approve the Salary Commission and increase the mayor’s salary by 25%; and (2) Leona Orr ... Voted to increase her salary along with other council members and judges.

Disposition: Dismissed (Partial)

Hammond, Steve--Case #04-441; Investigator: Sally Parker

Date Received: March 2, 2004

Date Started: March 29, 2004

Section of Law: RCW 42.17.530

Status: Investigation Complete

Summary: A complaint were received from James Heavey alleging that Steve Hammond, an incumbent King County Council member up election in 2003, violated political advertising laws by sponsoring political advertising that contained false statements about his opponent Barbara Heavey.

Disposition: Dismissed with the concurrence of the chair. No evidence was found that the two statements made in Steve Hammond’s campaign advertisement about Barbara Heavey, “75 percent of her contributions have come from Seattle liberal interests” and “She was a top manager at a King County agency when a 2000 employee survey found that 79% believed employee morale was bad and 59% believed that agency leadership lacked a clear vision” were false statements.

Orr, Leona (City of Kent)--Case #04-456; Investigator: Sally Parker

Date Originally Received: October 30, 2003 (Investigation previously suspended-per injunction)

Date Started: April 28, 2004

Section of Law: RCW 42.17.130

Status: Investigation Complete

Summary: A complaint was received from Sandra Amodt alleging that Kent City Councilmember Leona Orr, a candidate up for re-election to the Kent city council, used city facilities to promote her candidacy for public office.

Disposition: Dismissed with the concurrence of the chair. It was found that a photograph used by Ms. Orr in a political advertisement was purchased from the City of Kent, a service that is available to other candidates as well as the public. Ms. Orr paid $10 for the photograph, which is the standard fee charged by the City of Kent. Ms. Orr’s husband, Jim Orr, personally put up approximately 1,800 of the 2,000 campaign signs, and he denied attaching any signs to city signposts. Volunteers of the campaign put up the remaining 200 signs, and were aware that signs were not to be placed on city owned posts. Ms. Orr denied that anyone associated with her campaign attached any campaign signs to city signposts. No evidence was provided that Leona Orr or anyone associated with her campaign actually placed any campaign signs on city property.

Cases Referred To Attorney General For Further Action

Concerned Citizens for Better Government (CCBG) and Joseph Coomer, Treasurer, CCBG--#00-241; Investigator: Kurt Young

Date Received: October 21, 1999

Date Started: October 25, 1999

Section of Law: RCW 42.17.080 and .090

Status: Investigation Complete

Summary: A complaint was received from Meg Van Wyk, alleging that Concerned Citizens for Better Government (CCBG) and Joseph Coomer, Treasurer, CCBG, distributed political advertising without properly reporting or filing the required campaign disclosure reports. An enforcement hearing was held February 27, 2001.

Disposition: The Commission found that the Respondent committed multiple apparent violations and referred the matter to the Attorney General's Office.

Washington Education Association—Case #01-002; Investigator: Lori Anderson

Date Received: August 15, 2000

Date Started: August 18, 2000

Section of Law: RCW 42.17.760

Status: Investigation Complete

Summary: A complaint was received from the Evergreen Freedom Foundation and public school employees alleging that the Washington Education Association (WEA) and Washington School Districts are in violation of RCW 42.17.680 and 42.17.760. The complaint alleges that Washington School Districts are in violation of RCW 42.17.680 by withholding dues and fees from employees' wages that are used by the WEA and the National Education Association (NEA) for contributions to political campaigns. The complaint also alleges that the WEA is violating RCW 42.17.760 by using agency shop fees for political contributions and expenditures without the affirmative authorization of non-members. The complaint was forwarded to the PDC by the Attorney General's Office following its receipt of the complaint from EFF. The complaint was filed with the Attorney General's Office and all County Prosecuting Attorneys requesting that an action be commenced in the courts to address the apparent violations of RCW 42.17.

Note: If the Disposition shows “Pending,” the case has not yet been resolved and no finding on the allegations has been made.

The complaint said that if an action were not commenced in court the complainant would seek appropriate legal and equitable relief pursuant to RCW 42.17. RCW 42.17.400(4) provides a 45-day time period before a complainant may take steps to initiate a citizen’s action in superior court.

Disposition: The Commission accepted a Stipulation of Facts, Violations and Recommendations, found that the Respondent committed an apparent violation of RCW 42.17.760, stipulated to as actual violations, and referred the matter to the Attorney General’s Office.

Thurston County Superior Court Disposition: The Attorney General’s Office filed suit in Thurston County, and the case went to trial in Thurston County Superior Court. The Thurston County Superior Court found the Respondent intentionally violated RCW 42.17.760, and assessed a total civil penalty of $400,000. The Washington Education Association has appealed that decision.

Permanent Offense, Permanent Offense Incorporated, Traffic Improvement Initiative Committee, and Tim Eyman—Case #02-281; Investigator: Kurt Young; (Also received 45-Day Letter of Complaint)

Date Received: February 6, 2002

Date Started: February 6, 2002

Section of Law: RCW 42.17.080, .090, .120, & .125

Status: Investigation Complete

Summary: A complaint was filed by PDC Executive Director Vicki Rippie against Permanent Offense, Permanent Offense Incorporated, Traffic Improvement Initiative Committee, and Tim Eyman alleging the following: 1) failure to properly report committee expenditures, including the purpose of those expenditures; 2) concealing the fact that committee funds were expended to pay Mr. Eyman for compensation for the work he performed on behalf of Permanent Offense; 3) use of committee funds to pay for Mr. Eyman’s personal expenses. In addition, a “45-day letter of complaint” was filed by Richard A. Smith and Knoll Lowney, attorneys with Smith & Lowney, PLLC, representing Permanently Offended, with the Office of the Attorney General and the County Prosecutor’s Offices in King, Snohomish and Thurston counties against Permanent Offense, Permanent Offense, Inc., Traffic Improvement Initiative, Tim Eyman, Karen Eyman, and Suzanne Karr alleging violations similar to those outlined in the PDC complaint.

Disposition: A report to the Commission was presented at its special April 9, Commission meeting. The Commission found that the Respondent committed multiple apparent violations and referred the matter to the Attorney General’s Office.

Note: If the Disposition shows “Pending,” the case has not yet been resolved and no finding on the allegations has been made.

National Education Association—Case #02-282; Investigator: Suemary Trobaugh; (45-Day Letter of Complaint)

Date Received: January 31, 2002

Date Started: February 6, 2002

Section of Law: RCW 42.17.040, .080, .090, .680 and .760

Status: Investigation Complete

Summary: On January 31, 2002, the Evergreen Freedom Foundation, Lowell Johnson, Carrie Riplinger, Susan Kobes and David Williams, through attorney Jeanne Brown filed a citizen’s action letter under RCW 42.17.400(4) with the Office of the Attorney General and the State of Washington’s County Prosecutors’ Offices. The complaint alleged violations by the NEA’s Ballot Measure/Legislative Crisis and Media Campaign Fund of 1) RCW 42.17.040 et. seq (failure to register as a political committee); 2) violations of RCW 42.17.680(3) (diverting a portion of an employee's wages or salaries for contributions to political committees without the written request of the employee); and 3) violations of RCW 42.17.760 (using agency shop fees paid by non members to influence an election without written authorization by the Individual). On February 6, 2002, the Office of the Attorney General officially notified the PDC that they were referring the matter to the PDC for investigation. PDC Staff completed a Preliminary Report of Investigation and prepared a memorandum to Commission members concerning Staff’s findings and recommendation.

Disposition: On April 9, 2002, the matter was on the Commission’s agenda as a report to the Commission. In light of the complaint the Evergreen Freedom Foundation filed against the NEA in Thurston County Superior Court on April 8, 2002 under provisions of RCW 42.17.400(4), the Commission accepted Staff’s recommendation that it take no action in this case. On August 23, 2002, Thurston County Superior Court Judge Paula Casey dismissed the lawsuit filed by EFF against NEA. Judge Casey’s dismissal was based on a decision by the WA State Court of Appeals in State ex rel. Evergreen Freedom Foundation v Washington Education Association, No. 25272-4-II, where the court stated that “Before the 10-day period¹ had passed after EFF’s second letter to the AG, the AG forwarded the allegations to the PDC for investigation...Because the AG acted before the end of the 10-day period, EFF could not bring a citizen’s action lawsuit under RCW 42.17.400...” By a unanimous vote, the Commission dismissed the allegations that NEA violated RCW 42.17.040 and 42.17.680.

¹ RCW 42.17.400 states: “The citizen action may be brought only if the attorney general...ha(s) failed to commence an action hereunder within forty-five days and after such notice and such person has thereafter further notified the attorney general...that said person will commence a citizen’s action within ten days upon their failure to do so...”

Note: If the Disposition shows “Pending,” the case has not yet been resolved and no finding on the allegations has been made.

On October 2, 2002, at a special Commission meeting, by a unanimous vote, the Commission dismissed the allegations that NEA violated RCW 42.17.040 and 42.17.680. By a unanimous vote, the Commission found multiple apparent violations of RCW 42.17.760 by the NEA when it used agency shop fees to make contributions or expenditures to influence an election or to operate a political committee without authorization from the employees. The Commission found that given the insufficiency of its penalty authority, in lieu of holding an enforcement hearing, the Commission referred the above referenced apparent violations to the Washington State Attorney General's Office for appropriate action pursuant to RCW 42.17.360 and .395 and WAC 390-37-100.

Concerned Citizens for Better Government (CCBG) and Joseph Coomer, Treasurer, CCBG--#03-080; Investigator: Kurt Young

Date Received: November 6, 2002

Date Started: November 6, 2002

Section of Law: RCW 42.17.080 and .090

Status: Investigation Complete

Summary: A complaint was filed by Vicki Rippie, PDC Executive Director, alleging that the Concerned Citizens for Better Government (CCBG) and Joseph Coomer, Treasurer of CCBG distributed political advertising related to more than one election cycle without reporting contribution and expenditures activities that were undertaken.

Disposition: This matter was presented as a report to the Commission on March 25, 2003. The Commission found multiple apparent violations of RCW 42.17.065, 42.17.080 and 42.17.090 by the Respondents for failing to timely report contribution and expenditure information for 2001 and 2002 activities supporting or opposing candidates and ballot propositions. Given the insufficiency of its penalty authority, the Commission referred the apparent violations to the Attorney General’s Office for appropriate action.

Hopkins, Hank/Environmental Materials Transport, LLC--Case #03-153; Investigator: Sally Parker

Date Received: April 15, 2002

Date Started: April 19, 2002

Section of Law: RCW 42.17.105 & .120

Note: If the Disposition shows “Pending,” the case has not yet been resolved and no finding on the allegations has been made.

Status: Investigation Complete

Summary: This case is related to PDC Case No. 02-296. Hank Hopkins as President of Environmental Materials Transport, LLC (EMTLLC) was added as a respondent by PDC staff alleging that Mr. Hopkins made contributions in excess of $5,000 within 21 days of the 2001 general election by contributing $20,000 to Don Wasson’s political committee to support Des Moines City Council candidates Petersen, Benjamin and Steenrod. It was further alleged that Mr. Hopkins and EMT LLC concealed the source and amount of an initial $1,000 payment that was made to Don Wasson and his political committee to support the campaigns of Gary Petersen and Richard Benjamin. In addition, it is also alleged that Mr. Hopkins and EMT LLC concealed the source and amount of contributions that were made to Mr. Wasson’s political committee totaling $20,000 that also supported the 2001 Council campaigns of Mr. Petersen, Mr. Benjamin, and Ms. Steenrod.

Disposition: An Enforcement hearing before the Full Commission was held on March 25, 2003. The Commission found multiple apparent violations of RCW 42.17.120 by the Respondents for concealing contributions used to benefit candidates in the 2001 Des Moines City Council election. Given the insufficiency of its penalty authority, the Commission referred the apparent violations to the Attorney General’s Office for appropriate action.

Mooney, Pat --Case #04-310; Investigator: Sally Parker

Date Received: November 12, 2003

Date Started: November 13, 2003

Section of Law: RCW 42.17.040, .080, .090 & WAC 390-16-105

Status: Investigation Complete

Summary: Two complaints were received, one from Michael Evans and one from Brian Wetcher, alleging that Pat Mooney, a candidate for the Port of Anacortes, received contributions and made expenditures in support of his candidacy in excess of the mini reporting option limits. In addition, a “45-day Citizen Action Letter” was filed by Mr. Wetcher with the Office of the Attorney General and the Skagit County Prosecutor’s Office against Pat Mooney alleging almost identical violations as those outlined in the PDC complaint.

Disposition: This matter was originally presented to the Commission at its February 24, 2004 Commission meeting as a report to the Commission. The Commission directed that an enforcement hearing be held, which was done at a special Commission meeting on March 10, 2004. The Commission found that there were multiple apparent violations by Pat Mooney of the PDC’s statutes and rules including RCW 42.17.040, RCW 42.17.080, RCW 42.17.090, WAC 390-

Note: If the Disposition shows “Pending,” the case has not yet been resolved and no finding on the allegations has been made.

16-105, and WAC 390-16-125. The Commission noted the statutes and rules regarding mini reporting limits, and further noted that Mr. Mooney exceeded those limits, and that Mr. Mooney was aware that he should have advised his opponent of the fact he exceeded the mini reporting limits, but did not.

The Commission observed that the expenditures and contributions by Mr. Mooney exceeded the mini reporting limits, that those expenditures and contributions upset the even playing field in the campaign, and could have affected the outcome of the election. The Commission determined that a referral to the Attorney General's Office of this matter was appropriate because the remedies that the Commission could impose statutorily were insufficient in considering the number and quality of the apparent violations, and their possible effect on the election. In lieu of entering Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and an Order to impose a penalty or other relief, the Commission referred this matter to the Washington State Attorney General's Office, and requests the Attorney General's Office explore all remedies available, including the possibility of a court voiding the election.

Voters Education Committee--#05-027; Investigator: Phil Stutzman

Date Received: September 9, 2004

Date Started: September 9, 2004

Section of Law: RCW 42.17.040, .080, .090 & .120

Status: Investigation Complete

Summary: The Public Disclosure Commission staff became aware that on or about September 2, 2004, advertisements began to be broadcast on television stations around Washington State that were identified as being paid for by Voters Education Committee (VEC). The ads concerned Deborah Senn, a candidate for Attorney General, who was on the September 14, 2004 primary election ballot. The Voters Education Committee had filed as a Section 527 organization with the Internal Revenue Service listing its purpose as “a non-partician (sic), non-profit, non-discriminatory, political action committee which provides issue education.” PDC staff reviewed the advertisement, to determine whether the content of the advertisement constituted “issue advocacy” as claimed by VEC, or if it constituted “express advocacy” as contemplated by the Washington Supreme Court. PDC staff believed the advertisement, taken as a whole, represented an assault on Ms. Senn's character because the content went beyond taking issue with Ms. Senn's actions as Insurance Commissioner, and assailed her integrity and credibility. That activity made VEC and its agents a political committee under state law and required them to register and file detailed reports of contributions received and expenditures made with the Public Disclosure Commission.

Note: If the Disposition shows “Pending,” the case has not yet been resolved and no finding on the allegations has been made.

Disposition: This matter was presented as a report to the Commission on September 25, 2004, at a special Commission meeting. The Commission found apparent violations by VEC of RCW 42.17.040 for failing to timely register as a political committee, 42.17.080 and 42.17.090 for failing to file detailed reports disclosing contribution and expenditure activities, and RCW 42.17.120 for concealing the amount and identity of the source(s) of their contributions and the amount and recipients of their expenditures. The Commission referred this matter to the Washington State Attorney General's Office for appropriate action, including seeking a court order compelling Voters Education Committee to file the disclosure reports required by RCW 42.17.040 through 42.17.090.

Investigations In Progress

Benjamin, Richard; Peterson, Gary; Case #02-296; Investigator: Sally Parker

Date Received: April 15, 2002

Date Started: April 19, 2002 (Hearing held March 25, 2003 for portion of issues)

Section of Law: RCW 42.17.120, .080, .090, .240

Status: Under Investigation

Summary: A complaint was received from Dave Kaplan alleging that Gary Peterson failed to disclose information on his Personal Financial Affairs Statement (PDC Form F-1); that consulting services were provided by Don Wasson to two Des Moines City Council candidates that exceeded the mini reporting limits; that the Des Moines Marina Association made contributions to three candidates for Des Moines City Council that were not disclosed; that a political advertisement was produced and distributed in the City of Des Moines without sponsor identification; that additional political advertisements supporting or opposing candidates for Des Moines City Council failed to contain proper sponsor identification and were not timely reported. On May 1, 2002, a complaint addressing several of the same issues was received from Stanley M. Scarvie on behalf of Citizens for Des Moines. Mr. Scarvie's complaint has been combined with Case #02-296.

Note: If the Disposition shows "Pending," the case has not yet been resolved and no finding on the allegations has been made.

In addition, Don Wasson was added as a Respondent and the issues concerning Mr. Wasson, as well as the issues concerning other Respondents named in the original complaint, have been handled through an enforcement hearing held March 25, 2003. The remaining issues deal with allegations of concealment (RCW 42.17.120) by Richard Benjamin and Gary Peterson, reporting issues (RCW 42.17.080 and .090) by Gary Peterson, and financial affairs reporting issues (RCW 42.17.240) by Gary Peterson.
